Wby Mr. Lincoln should have selected lod, of Oblo, to run the Treasury machine we can't tell. He may seem to be what nobody thought him. If he does not, the acection is unaccountable. It may be as good as any other. Money is wanted in the Treasury, not brains. Genius may make a sound currency out of sufficient resources; but geulus can't create money or credit when the rescurces do not exist. Tod will, perhaps, do as well as anybody else, and anybody else would do as well as Tod. It would seem if any one could engineer the financial machine, it is the man who has retired. Ha has constructed the complicated machinery, and ought to understand it better than any one else. He does not lack talent; although his ucgment on finances may not be good; it is hard to say. In such a struggle financial embarrasement is the uniform result la all history, and uo one, however skillful in finance, has been able to avoid it.

Our farnces failed in the revolution, and there is no telling what would have been the result from this cause if we had not got help from Europe. The Southern Confederacy ran down in finance; their promises to pay being worth little or nothing. We have two or three times their resources; but we have two or three times their expenses. They have only to regist, whilst we have to send large armics yast distances and fight them on their own terms. The coutest is not half as unequal as it has been thought. It is not at all surprisog, then, that finances have become embarrace ing. It is a untural result, and it would have been a miracle if it had been otherwise. We may look for a further depreciation of the correccy temporarily, at least, which is a serious calami'y to every man in any business. It is every man's interest to support the credit of the circulating medium; for its depreciation will entail the greatest embarrasement.

Among the very unexpected incidents ecently, that of the resignation of Mr. Chese ome upon the country most surprisingly. We had heard no rumors of any kind to precede it. It was a fish from a clear sky, and certainly must have startled his own side ss much as it surprised every one else. What dispute could have occurred between Father Abraham and the father of the "greenbacke?" Has the printing press got out of order, or do they disagree in the division of the proceeds? It certainly is a question to be asked. We supposed for some time there was no very good feeling between the two. A few mouths since they were rival candidates, but we supposed the withdrawal of Mr Chase from the contest had settled the dispute. It will be remembered that Mr. Lincoln's letter, however, was a very cool one-certainly not such as would be expected between brothers in office; but as it had been allowed to pass without further comment, we were induced to believe that the storm had blown over, and har-

Had they fallen out then, no one would have been surprised; but to get at loggerheads now, sa if Mr. Chase had Just waked up to the sense of having been badly treated. ls rather novel.

The country will look with some interest to the fainse course of the Secretary of the Treasury. Will be support his former chief? or was his resignation sent in to relieve himself of the necessity of doing set If that proves to be the case, Mr. Lincoln will prove the cx-Secretary to be a very dangerous foe. He is able and willing, and has an influence beyond what is usually estimated. He can give to Fremont a most powerful Impulse, and deal a cangerons blow to Mr. Lincoln. We look forward with curioeity to the developments of the matter. As it stands now, an xplanation is absointely required of Mr. Chase, and we hope to have it by the time this paper is issued.

It may be the fluencial condition of the country that has driven the ex-Secretary into retirement. It certainly is very alarming. The number of blanders which have recently marked Congressional legislation, under the advice of the Secretary, are producing a most disastrops effect, and It is possible Mr. Chase feels that he had better get out of the way before the crash comes. We compliment blm apon his discretion. Should this be the case, we thick he has shown himself far wiser than the rash ludividual who has taken up the burthen which he laid down. If it was too weighty for Mr Chase, it will be still more burthensome for his anccessor, and he must be very solicitons to obtain office to accept it under such an Administration, and in such

We have not agreed with the financial poley of Mr. Chase, but we have often remarked that it was a duty much easier to criticise in its performance than to discharge. Mr. Chase had more to do perhaps than was in the power of any one, and very many will feel disposed to compliment him upon having succeeded as well as he dld.

Ose immediate effect will be a still further depreciation of United States stocks, and as for gold, it will go up like a rocket. The change will cause a distrust that no explanation will do away with under Mr. Lincoln's Administration.

We have just seen in a "loya!" paper the following morcesu, which shows what sort of food satisfies the 'loyal" stomach : LOYALTY.-The Union Press says : The fol lowing nut-shell illustration of Loyalty was given by one of our citizens to a gentlemen from the inverior: A conservative gentleman said that the word A conservative gentleman said that the word loyally seemed to have a good many meanings. We people in the country claim to be loyal, but not exactly after your city fachion. We underetond that with you it is necessary understore everything the Administration does before one can be considerable loyal. A cilizen arked if it was possible he believed that.

The conservative replied that it seemed so to him, and a:ked for a deficition of loyalty, which was given after this wise: You have a church in the country; it consists of thirty members and a pastor; a mere bandful compared with the nation. Can you indose all your church does? Certainly not You have a small p to your church, doe's you? You have a smaller organization than that; you have a smaller Organization than that; you have a smally. Can you indorse all that your family coes? Certainly not, but you can't by your family. Oh, of course. Well that's loyalty. You can't indorse yourself for any one day out of the 363.

This is truly a "putchell illustration," for there is nothing in it. Suppose your pastor were introducing soul-destroying heresy, corrupting the morals of the young exciting I too bolts, not less than four ou sees la weight, brraconcilable animosity among the members, plunging the church into hopeless debt for the purpose of furnishing white aprous and white skine to the piccaninnies of Borloboola-Ghe. and, in general, burrying things on with railroad speed to the Devil, would loyalty to your church be shown in making efforts to loyalty" require you to eay: "Well, pastor may be doing some things which we do not entirely approve; but we must support him, measures and all, for it la necessary to preserve the life of the Church!" O, "loyal" Prem! do you think to feed us with such "nut-shells," and make us believe we are cating kernels? Truly, this is worse then the Barmecide feas'l 1he Barmecide, pretending to feed Shacabac, gave him nothing, and so put nothing noxious into his etomach; but the "loyal" Press, pretending date their subscription will expire ten days in ad- to give the reader something to eat, fills his stomach with nut shells, which are destined to produce fixulence, colic, cholers morbus,

The Position Re'ore the Assault-Indomitable Bravery of Our Men-The Fighting was Very Severe-A Partial Delano. List of the Casquitles.

[Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.] N THE FIELD NEAR BIG SHANTY, June 29, 1 VIA NASHVILLE, June 30. Yesterday morning at eight o'clock precise y, in pursuance of orders from Gen. Sherman, a assault was made on the enemy's works long the whole line; Frank B'air's corps (17th) reled the eastern point of Kinnesaw Mou tain, on the left of our line, and menaced the enemy's right. General Dodge's (16th) sa-saulted the nights on the northern tlope, and Logan stormed the western slope of the mona tain, pushing his column glorlously forward to the very base of an insurmantable cliff, the perpendicular hight of which is thirty feet Davia' division, of the 14th corpe, and New-ton's, of the 4th, constituted the assaulting column of the center. Geary and Butterfield, of thocker's corps, supported the center col-uma on the right, and Schofield, on the ex treme right of our line, moved forward his whole force, dis'odging and driving the enemy from a line of light works. Logan's column was composed of three brigades—Lightburu's and Giles A Smith's, of M. L. Smith's division, with Walcott, of Harrow's division.

The assaulting force was immediately under command of Gen. M. L. Smith. Besides the ruggedness of the sleps, a deare growth of underbrush impeded the advance. The en-emy, with twelve gnus, from the summit naintained a withering cross-fire as the troops debonched late the open fields. Nothing dannted, they pushed on, cleared two lines of sbattle, cisledged and drove the enemy from road, and quietly decamped, pursued by our

of battle on the verge above hurled at our line massive rockr, cube, and stones, and an incessant shower of bullets, killing and main-ing many; but amid all this the troops threw up defenses of legs and rocks, and still the flig flutters where it was planted. In one and a quarter hours from the time Login left his works, his men were as far up the slope as the natural impediments would permit. Three brigades lost over slavy officers, and between 300 and 400 men. Simultaneously with Logan's assault the center column moved against the rebel works. Davis, with Colonel Dan McCook's and John G. Mitchell's brigades, formed in column of division, marched out on the Dalles and Marietta road, and debouching from the cover of the lorest, under a heavy fire of artillery, swept rapidly across the open and rolling ground between the lines; at the same time Harker and Wagner, of New con's division of division. at the same time trainer and wagner, of New ton's division, to division, with Kimball slightly retired and to the rear of Wagner. The ground between the lines is very uneven and epen from left to right. Both Columna became enveloped at once in a terrible hurricans of missiles. The apectacle defice description. the men now cast stones at each other.

Colonel Dan. McCook fell at the head of his roops while in the act of mounting the rebel parapet. Colonel Harmon, of the One Hundred and Twenty fith lilinois, who succeeded him in command, was killed a few mixutes afterwards, and Col. Dilworth succeeded him. It is added, as an additional reason, that has evening the Secretary submitted to the Fluoree Committee of the Senate the Ways and Means Committee if one bill, levying additional taxes upon certain articles of luxing, such as whicky, tobacco, petroleum, &c., accompanied by a statement that it was absolutely necessary to provide for $85 000 000 more revenue from this source, to enable the Government to get on with salety; and that the colders with which his preposition had been asset with which his preposition had been as ness with which his proposition had been re-ceived by both committees had strengthened his determination to abundon the office, the administration of the duties of which was ren-

NEW YORK, July 1. The Post's money article says the appoint ment of Mr. F spenden as Beergiary of the treasury is very favorably regarded in mannedal circles. Confidence is criving, as there is general anticipation of a repeal of the gold bill, and slav of the terminating of the viohini and exciting movament in currency which have ben caused by the andden ca largement or contraction of the volume of the circulating medium. This being removed, the belief is that currency will be more stable, and it had a gratifying effect on Government BICERTILLER,

They went to the courthouse, took therefrom about sixly or sixty five muskets and accoulrements, complete. Major Taylor went to the house of Mr. Tyler, who is a relative of Taylor's wife, and inquired of the health of his family, who are living in J. flarson county, about ten miles from this city. The Monitor speaks of them as wonderful guerrillas, as they did not care for the keys of the bank or steal anything while in the town. They called on Mr. Hathaway, in the county, and took a horse belonging to Mr. 8 M. Wing, valued at $160. One of the party gave his name sa Robinson, and said he was from Jefierson county. DEPARTURES-Gen'l Buell, for Cincinnati: Id. Reese, for Smithland; Pocahontas, for Cincinnati; Baltimore, for New Orleans.

The river at this point continues to fall, though alowly, with scant three feet four inches in the canal last evening by the mark, and fifteen inches in the Indian chute on the fall. Duaing the twenty-four hours, anding at dusk last evening, the river at the head of the falls had recoded about one quarter of an inch, or over an inch at Portand. The weather has been clear and exceedingly

The river at Cincinnatt yesterday at noon was failing, wi'h but four feet eix inches water in the channel hence to this place.

Our last advices from Pittsburg are that the river there is falling, with but twenty inches water in the channel by the pier mark. The Lower Onio continues to recede, and hence to Evansville there is not to exceed four feet water in the channel. At Scuffetown bar yesterdey there was 3% feet weter. This is the shoalest bar between this city and Evansville. The Commercial and Mercury were aground at French Island as the Tarrecon came up Thursday.

Portland bar ie daily growing worse, and yasterday morning there were three or four boate aground there, the Liberty No. 2 and Tarascor amodg the number. We regret to learn that Robert S. Dunning, the clerk of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail packet Gen'l Buell, died Thursday at Cincinnati of cholera morbus. For twenty-five years he has been a clerk on the river, and was highly esteemed for his many xeelieut qualities. Peace to hie ashes. The Gen'i Lytle is the regular mall packet for incinnati at noon to-day. The fleet Star Gray Kagle is the regular packet for Henderson to-day. THE SARATOGA-CAPT. FRIEDRE'S NEW STEAMER FOR ST. LOUIS TO-DAY .- To the large number of ane steamers which have been built and fitted ont at this point we have to add the Saratoga, just finished at the city wharf for E. J. Frisbee, of this city. The Saralega is one of the most complete ceamers we have had the pleasure of weeing for a ong time. She is built in the best possible man ner; and, while nothing has been lavished on her o caich the eye, neither paine or expense have been spared to make her a swift, substantial and comfortable eteamer, and in this her owners have again becoming very troublecome on the with all the conveniences known to the age for not been disappointed. The Saratoga is enpplied river between here and Henderson There is safety and comfort. She has a large, fine nursery, party hovering around Hawesville, who and in her attra outfit she is not surpassed by any bout on the Western waters. The cabin of the Saratoga is of gothic style, of plain white, and presents a very fine appearance is an excellent piece of workmanchip, as it ery job turned out from the famous mill of Mo Baran & Co., of this city.
